House or Representatives, United States.

My pear seri I have been pleased to meet with you once more after the lapse of so many years, and I decire to avail myself of an early opportunity to add my thanks to these you must have received from many others for your labde and care in the compilation of the away of the United States relating to pensions and beauty lands, a copy of the stereotype edition of which I have in my peace son.

The subject of pensions is one which has been, and still continues to be, of interest to the great American family. The circumstances under which those for revolutionary services were provided are of a highly interesting character.*

It was never the design of our fathers that the system should be partial, sting to some while it withholds from others equally deserving. Your arrangement of the laws, therefore, while it presents is detail the provisions made, is at the same time suggestive of those dedictencies and omissions which render the system incomplete.

Your work I have found of incalculable value to me in my position as chairman of the Committee on Revolutionary Pensions, for, without it, I should have been subjected to the labor of a close scannination of the statutes; and from the frequency of my recurrence to it I have been able to test its merit and appreciate its worth.

I am, my dear sir, most respectfully and truly, yours,
